2/8/17 6:30 p.m.

Opening Prayer- Meghan Manny

Old Business:

Barnes & Noble: Thank you to Lois Teitsch and Katie Archambault (Co-Chairs) and all volunteers for a very successful Book Fair. We had $2250.95 in sales which net our School $329.13.

Movie Night: Thank you to Nicole Johnson and Mark Bagnoli (Co-Chairs) for a great event for the children. There was a good turnout, great snacks and great fun!

Cookie Exchange: Thank you to Katie Archambault and Sloan Bullough (Co-Chairs) for organizing the cookie exchange for Teachers and Staff. It was very much appreciated by the staff and they loved the many treats.

Santa's Workshop: Thank you to Tanya Testo for chairing this event and for all the volunteers that helped set up, wrap and shop.

Catholic School's Week: It was a fun-filled week. The children enjoyed!

Ice Skating: Thank you to Adrienne Alley for chairing this event. 101 pre-paid tickets and 13 walk-in tickets were sold. The PSA made $291 profit that will be used for future activities and events.

New Business:

Krause's Easter Candy Sale: Our sale started 1/22/17 and will be co- chaired by Marnie Rounds and Bridgid Carhart. Our school receives 50% of the profit from sales.

March Madness: Kickoff started 1/17/17. Tickets can be sold through March but drawing starts 3/1/17.

Willard Mountain Tubing: Reservations need to be in before Winter Recess. Cost is $10 per person for this family-fun event. Chair for this event is Meagan Strong.

Spring Book Fair: 4/2/16 will be our next book fair at Barnes and Noble. Volunteers are needed to help throughout the day. Please reach out to Lois Teitsch and Katie Archambault (co-chairs). The author of MineCraft will be signing autographs during our event.

School Bucks Update: Rebecca Bloom-Chair. We are currently in 7th Place. Receipts must be submitted within 60 days to count. All types of mall receipts count (ex; movies,shops, bill payments, clothing stores, appliance purchases).
